

QUALITY POLICY

The Quality Management System developed and implemented by the ENAVSIS Trade & Energy Ltd Management conforms with the requirements of ISO 9001 and constitutes its operating framework in the field of industrial energy systems, offering turn key solutions for the:

- Supply, installation, commissioning and maintenance of accessory equipment for large combustion plants,
- Supply, installation, commissioning and maintenance of equipment for the analysis of gases / particles in the chimney or in the environment and of its sample conditioning accessories,
- Supply and maintenance of non-destructive testing equipment with emphasis in visual inspection and radiography.

The Management is committed to satisfying the requirements of its customers and all the regulatory requirements that govern the company's operation, through the implementation and continuous improvement of the already developed Quality Management System.

The purpose of the Management in relation to the Quality is through the continuous improvement of the company's operation and the continuous training of its staff to achieve the reinforcement of its customers satisfaction. The Quality Management System is the framework for establishing and monitoring the individual goals that the company sets in order the latter to secure that the system is suitable for its operation, corresponding to the prevailing needs and conditions of the market and that it serves to itself for preserving its highly competitive position in the market.

The Management is committed to provide all the necessary means to the company's personnel to be updated and to be facilitated in the implementation of the Quality Management System but also to actively participate in its improvement.

The Management

Efstratios Paris

Themistoklis Panagiotidis